KID DISKO

Kid Disko is a new online entertainment network and TV show featuring entertainment for modern children of all ages. Kid Disko welcomes performance, videos and visits from viewers as well as many artists who have risen throughout the world to create an entirely new 21st century phenomenon: a pre-teen and totally tween rock and pop experience.

Every show will feature various music, dance and comedy videos, musical movie and television scenes as well as cartoons and personalities from film studios and broadcast and cable networks.

Viewer-created videos and many local and regional performing favorites will be featured prominently. Kid Disko will invite viewers to submit their own home videos to YouTube, where the public can find their favorites. Videos will show kids singing, dancing, and just plain having fun in all forms of musical and comical mayhem.

The stars of the top viewed Kid Disko home videos will be featured on Kid Disko and get a chance to become a Global Kid Disko Star.

Kid Disko brings to hip kids from Brooklyn to Portland to Berlin and beyond a joyful, healthy, and fun way to shake their stuff, celebrate life, music and humor and connect with one another!

ABOUT STEVE PAUL

Steve Paul, the creator of Kid Disko, is both uniquely qualified in not only his passion for music, dance, puppets, artists, positivity, possibility and fun of all sorts but was also a kid with a club and a TV show. His club, The Scene, introduced the Jimi Hendrix Experience, Pink Floyd, Van Morrison and other superstars to New York for the first time. His TV show hosted Aretha Franklin's national television debut, along with a constellation of entertainers and personalities. He is also a Tony-nominated producer and creator of downtownTV.com.
