Video Funhouse

Video Funhouse is a new television show being developed by downtownTV.com.

Framed by an atmosphere of kaleidoscopic and carnivalesque eye candy and imagery, Video Funhouse will feature original content created by the Funhouse gang along with the next generation of the internet's funniest home videos, preexisting funhouse spirited classics and goodies, the best of short comedy videos from the world's leading sketch comedy groups, solo artists and the most talented young short comic filmmakers, funny music videos, found films, and classic comic moments and outtakes from major and independent TV and film studios.

Video Funhouse not only aggregates and creates but is out on the streets, on the scene and behind the scenes.

The hosts/ringmasters will serve not only as traffic cops but also have a unique ability to provide a surreal quality in both their humor and style especially appropriate for Video Funhouse.

In the last year more than 3 million people bought the pocket-sized wonder called The Flip as well as other next generation compact video cameras and with the ability to directly upload to the Video Funhouse YouTube group we will be offering a filtered selection from the most popular videos to be aired on the Video Funhouse show.

Video Funhouse is conceived and produced by Steve Paul.

Steve Paul has produced shows in cellars and penthouses, on Broadway and at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. and for public access, syndication and HBO with guest artists including Richard Pryor, George Carlin, Bill Hicks, Todd Solondz, Kids in the Hall, Lewis Black, Reno, Quentin Crisp, Elaine Stritch, Chris Durang, Fran Lebowitz, and even the singing duet debut of Lyle Lovett and Steven Wright.
