Girl Blog

Girl Blog is an empowering internet generation TV show that references both the global popularity of girl blogging and the freewheeling interchanges of The View.

Appealing to young women, the show will feature pre-taped video blogs followed by an in-studio group chat in response to each other's blogs, hot topics and whatever else the moment provokes.

The core group of Girl Blog regulars are articulate young women with particular passions, interests and expertise as well as an ability to participate freely and revealingly in the group chat at the end of each show.

Currently our most diverse and interesting group of young women includes Miz Metro (recording artist and art curator), Laura Grant (artist and fashion designer, member of the DEARRAINDROP art collective), PattyDukes (hip hop artist and teaching artist), Susan Blond (artist and public relations legend), Cheroc Sebti (artist and stand-up comic), Malia Scharf (media activist and filmmaker), Monisha Chowdhary (a Rutgers graduate in economics, knitter, Bollywood dance star and experimental theater actress), Alexandra Richards (multi-disciplinarian artist who is a painter, jewelry designer, DJ and model), Sasha Cole (a leading industrial designer and extreme sports athlete) and Stephanie Wei (entrepreneur, writer, envirolution leader and noted golf blogger).

The core group of contributors will be joined from time to time by the world's most popular girl video bloggers from the Girl Blog YouTube group as well as celebrity guest girl bloggers.

Girl Blog presents the diversity and personality of a new-generation TV show that draws upon the basic appeals of talented young women sharing and interacting in ways classic, modern and unexpected, on multiple broadcast platforms.

The show reflects the girl bloggers' fresh and varied take and interaction on popular culture, music, celebrity, fashion, style, spirit, technology, relationships, career, health, positivity and life sustainability in our fast evolving society.

downtownTV.com is also creating and developing individual shows for PattyDukes, Cheroc and Miz Metro and is seeking strategic relationships be they with TV networks or brands to further co-develop these unique personalities in a way that satisfies the mutual needs of all parties in a successful collaboration.
